

CRYSTALEX

Making a cutting-edge cocktail is a bit like rocket science: you want people to be over the moon. That is why we approached the greatest minds in the business to show us what the science of taste is all about. Building on their hands-on expertise, we've curated a collection of Crystalex glassware just perfect for mixing state-of-the-art drinks. And because this new set of bartending glasses was selected in close consultation with the foremost bartenders in the business, it is perfect for even the most challenging recipes. Get ready to experience the future of cocktail design.
